

Privacy and Personal Data Protection Policy

Personal data (names, date of birth and email addresses) will be shared between Cograpes and WSET to facilitate ordering examinations and to file past exam grades. Any data that Cograpes and WSET stores will be for the students' benefit as students may contact our offices regarding information about past examination results.

Under Taiwan Personal Data Protection Act, the collection or processing of personal data by Cograpes shall be for specific purposes and on one of the following bases:

1. where it is expressly required by law;
2. where there is a contractual or quasi-contractual relationship between the non-government agency and the data subject, and proper security measures have been adopted to ensure the security of the personal data;
3. where the personal data has been disclosed to the public by the data subject or has been made public lawfully;
4. where it is necessary for statistics gathering or academic research by an academic institution in pursuit of public interests, provided that such data, as processed by the data provider or as disclosed by the data collector, may not lead to the identification of a specific data subject;
5. where consent has been given by the data subject;
6. where it is necessary for furthering public interest;
7. where the personal data is obtained from publicly available sources unless the data subject has an overriding interest in prohibiting the processing or use of such personal data; or

8. where the rights and interests of the data subject will not be infringed upon.
